

QualTrain Australia is an approved provider of OPD

Options for completing OPD requirements 2018-2021

Option 1 – Face-to-Face

We welcome celebrants to attend any one of our face-to-face events – the full schedule can be seen by clicking on the map on this page:

<https://qualtrain.com.au/celebrant-opd/>

We are very proud of our trainers – each of whom is selected for their many years of experience as marriage celebrants along with their proficiency as skilled trainers.

We have a wide range of topical and innovative activities to offer – none of the 'old-hat' topics – all are designed to inspire and encourage marriage celebrants to develop skills and knowledge appropriate to their work.

Option 2 – Select a unit of competency (from CHC41015 CIV in Celebrancy)

Something new this year!

Celebrants may select a unit of competency from within CIV in Celebrancy – once achieved, this unit will be recognised in lieu of completing the elective OPD activities – see fact sheet. QualTrain will provide the Compulsory Activity online at no extra cost to each celebrant who selects this option.

There is a wide choice of units available and they can be undertaken either online or face-to-face in the classroom. See the next page for more information

Option 3 – Complete OPD activities online or by distance education

We have a new e-learning website to provide interactive and interesting OPD activities online. You will see the selection available by clicking on this icon

Alternatively, we provide informative workbooks for activities selected from the list available for distance education. You may see the selection by clicking on

Selecting a unit of competency (from CHC41015 CIV in Celebrancy)

There is a total of 37 units of competency in this qualification, however, nine of them are Core or Mandatory for Marriage, and most celebrants will have already achieved a version of those! So, we recommend selecting a unit that will expand your knowledge and skills – see suggestions below.

These are accredited units, formal enrolment will be required (following online booking) when achieved, a certificate of attainment will be provided as well as completion of OPD.

Reminder: in each year where the Compulsory Activity is required, QualTrain will provide that activity included in the price of the single unit.
